Items To Be Discussed

TRAFFIC SAFETY AROUND PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Minutes:

Board Member Jones started discussion regarding traffic around public schools. Discussion included the following:

- In 2014, there was a policy passed by the city for a local ordinance to reduce the speed to 25 mph for residential cut through but it is not applicable to school zones.

- City policy defines school safety zones by how the school is constructed on the land.
- Board Member Jones will contact the School Safety Committee to discuss and understand decisions that were made 15-16 years ago.
- Board Member Jones will meet with Lori Boyer to discuss the issues and concerns with traffic safety around public schools.
- JSO will help with speed zones when school starts for 2017-2018.
